

Thomas Lause

SUMMARY

Mr. Thomas Lause retired June 2022 as the Vice President of Business Affairs, CFO, and Treasurer for the University of Findlay, Findlay, Ohio. Mr. Lause retired from Cooper Tire and Rubber in 2018 as Vice President of Treasury and Tax, Treasurer.

Mr. Lause has served as the multi-billion dollar corporation's vice president and treasurer, overseeing global treasury operations and risk management. He has led design, negotiation and execution of two new credit facilities totaling $550 million; negotiated global insurance coverage for property, casualty and executive risk; and was responsible for Cooper's global tax. Mr. Lause also led multiple special projects, particularly in Cooper Tire's China Operations.

Mr. Lause also served as leader of Cooper Tire's European Operations from 1999 – 2003 while stationed in the United Kingdom.

The Findlay resident earned a Master of Business Administration and a Bachelor of Science in business administration from Bowling Green State University, is a graduate of the University of Notre Dame's Executive Leadership Program, and earned a Certificate of Public Accounting.

Mr. Lause has served on the Ohio Manufacturers Association Board of Directors, Bowling Green State University's College of Business Advisory Board, and is a board member and Finance Committee Chair for the Findlay-Hancock County Chamber of Commerce and The Alliance economic development organization. He is a past board director and treasurer of United Way of Hancock County.